SOJOURN

THE REAL MILLENNIUM

University of Massachusetts Lowell
One University Avenue
Lowell, MA 01854

Each year the Catholic Center goes to Kentucky or Alabama to rebuild and fix up the houses of those less fortunate. As a group, these students drastically change "ONE" family's life for the better.

The Power of One

People have the ability to touch the heart of those around they and never know the impact of their actions. Here are some of the people who have made a difference. They have taken it upon themselves to make a change for the better. Perhaps you didn't realize how this "ONE" person made a difference in your life.

Mary Connelly and Dean Ellen Duggan; two individuals who have dedicated their lives to being there for other people, especially students. They both put in long hours week after week inspiring individuals to make a difference "ONE" day at a time.

GIVE OF YOURSELF

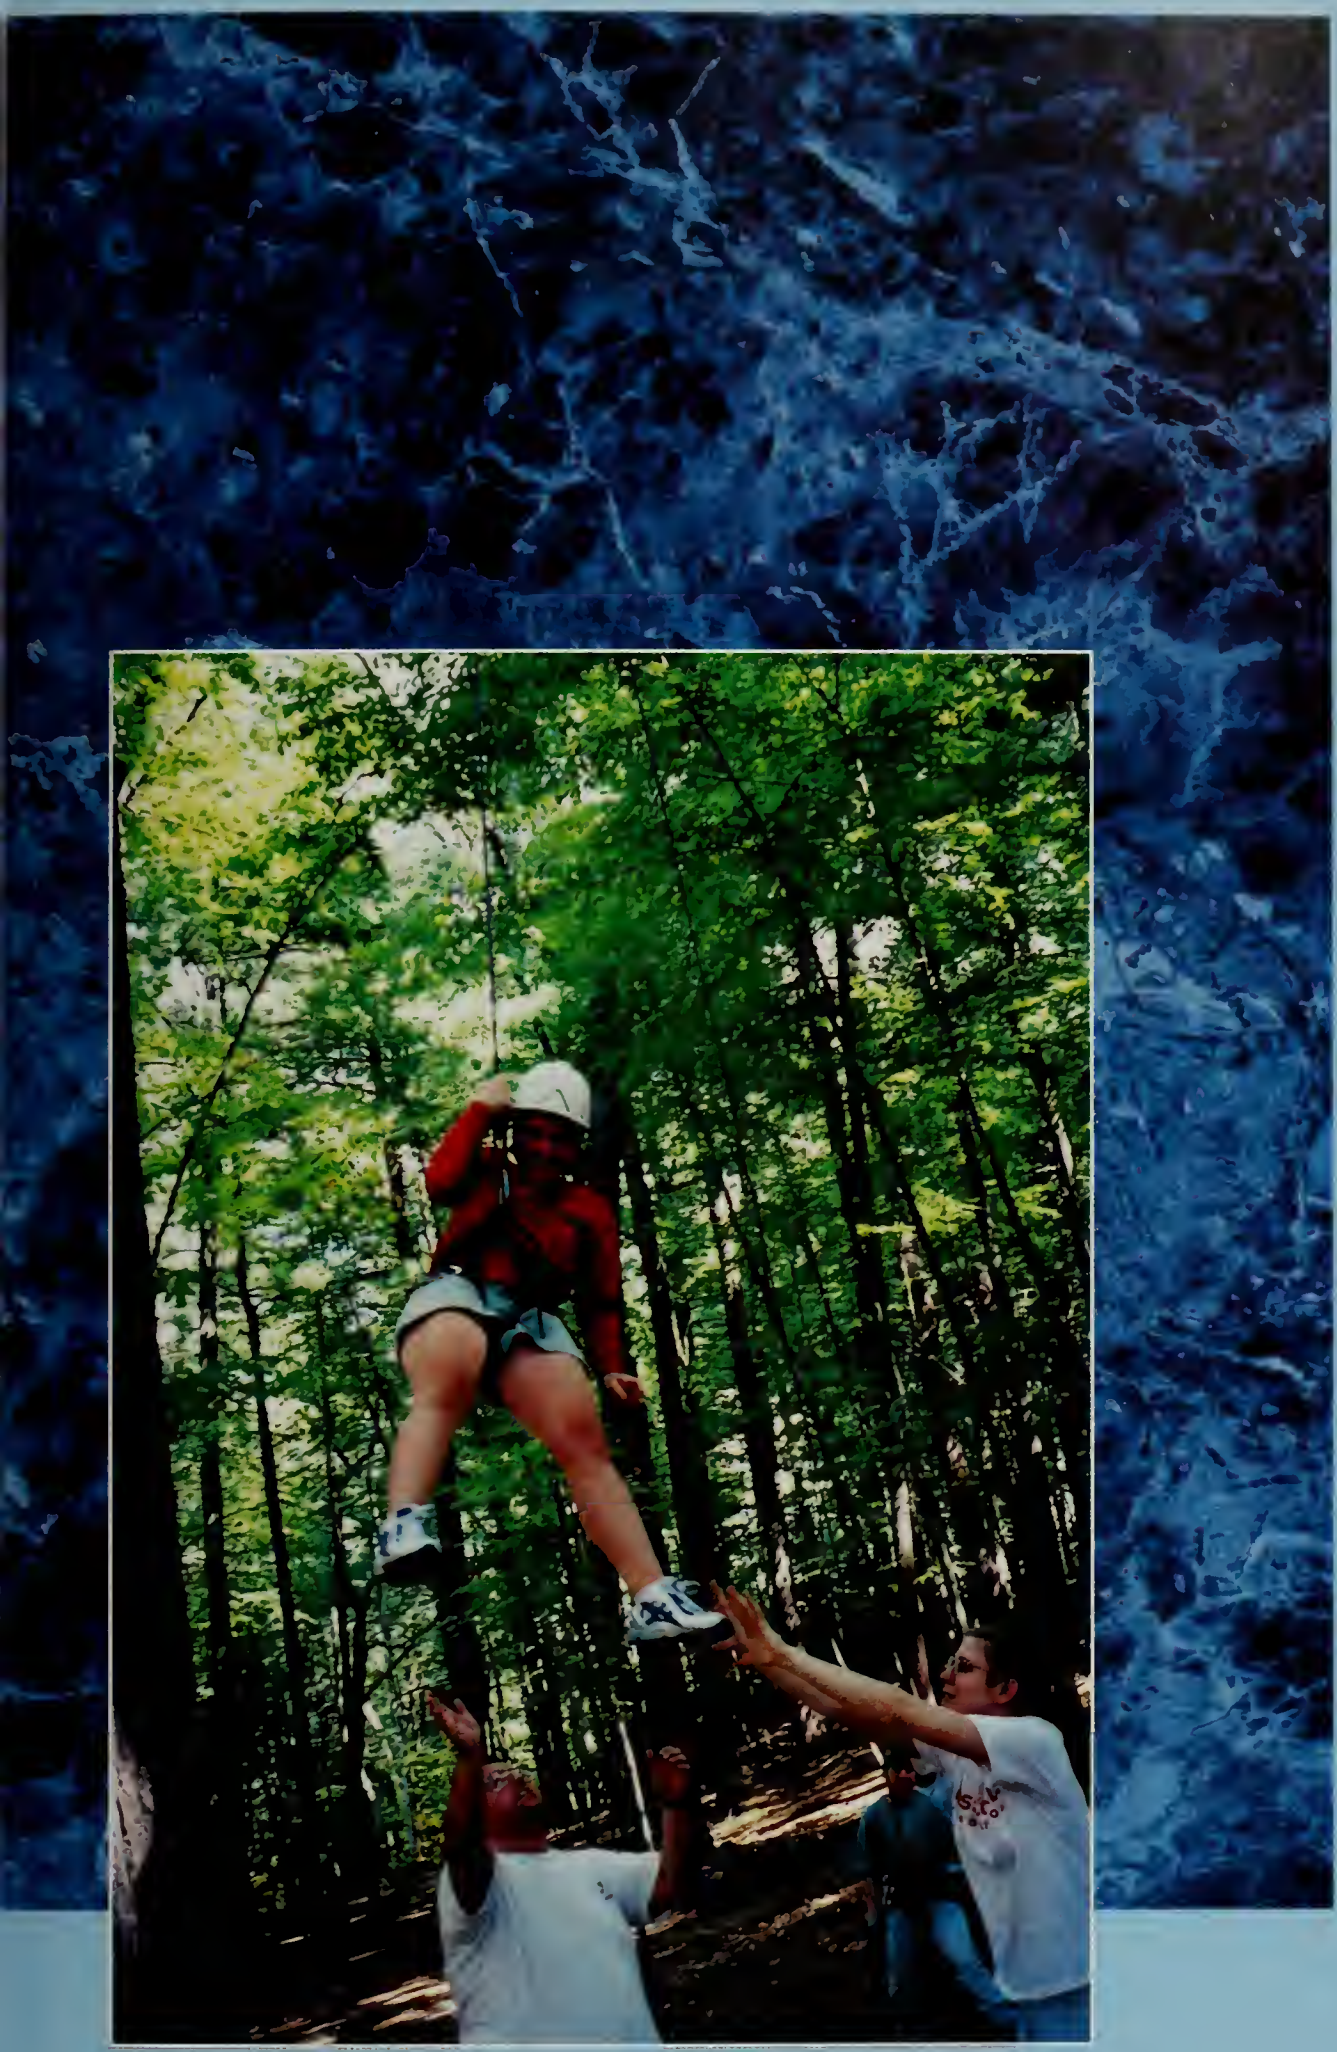
Dick Cody has done so much for the residental and commuter students here at the University. From dining halls to commuter cafes, he has made sure that there is more than "ONE" option for everyone.

The faculty at UMass Lowell is not here just to lecture and give assingments. They are here to help you learn the many skills needed to succeed in life. Many of the facutly go above and beyond the call of duty to be the "ONE" that makes a difference.

MAKE A DIFFERENCE

LEAD, DON'T FOLLOW

The Challenge by Choice ropes course is a place where you can go to conquer your fear of heights, learn better ways to function as a team, or just have fun. You are able to catch a glimpse into how "ONE" person can change the dynamics of a group. In a team, everyone must work together and yet respect each individual's strengh and weaknesses.



TAKE THE INITIATIVE

Sergeant Dupont and Officer Crook were the two police officers who helped local civilian Michael Brown saved the life of a man who almost jumped off the University Ave. bridge. Together they show how "ONE" helping hand can go a long way and change the life of another.

Friendship consists of forgetting what "ONE" receives and remembering what "ONE" gives. Friends find common bonds and create many memories through the activities that they participate in.

Activities Commission

The Activities Commission at UMass Lowell is in charge of major entertainment in the form of concerts, lectures, and special events such as Family Day, Block Parties, University Week and Spring Carnival. This year, AC was able to bring "Nine Days" and "They Might Be Giants" to perform for the University. AC is also responsible for other smaller program weeks such as "Get a Grip Week", "Winterfest Week", "Fear No People Week", just to name a few.

CONNECTOR

The UMass Lowell Connector provides an excellent opportunity for anyone to learn about the creative world of newspaper publishing. Writers, photographers and artists are always welcome to help publish the weekly student newspaper.

CRIMINAL JUSTICE SOCIETY

AMERICAN METEROLOGICAL SOCIETY

EMS

The Emergency Medical Services consists of EMT's and those students who have the desire to get involved in the Emergency Medical Services. The purpose of the club is to provide prompt, efficient and caring medical service to the general body of the University. Some services include Red Cross First Aid courses and 24 hour emergency medical coverage.

INTERNATIONAL

The International Relations Club (IRC) provides students with the opportunities to experience world politics first hand. This year, the IRC attended the National Model Arab League, held in Georgetown, and the National Model United Nations, held in New York. In both conferences, the students represented the Arab Republic of Egypt on various committees such as Political, Economic and Social Affairs (in Georgetown) and UNDP, WTO and OAU (in New York).

Officers:
Advisor – Dean Bergeron
President – Lisa Chandonnet
Vice-president – Barbara Rocha
Secretary and T.A. – Don Leonard
Treasurer – John Harrison
T.A. – Andrea Dewar

Relations Club

A highlight of the Georgetown conference was our yearly briefing by former IRC member ('87) and present National Security Council Director for Counter-Terrorism on the state of American foreign affairs. In addition, the IRC received an Honorable Mention delegation award. Lisa Chandonnet received an Outstanding Delegate award for the Social Affairs committee, Barbara Rocha for the Security Affairs committee and Don Leonard for the Palestinian Affairs committee.

Members:
Jessica Cogswell
Andre Gorgenyi
Maria Forrest
Sarah Zemetres
Ben Stanley
Paul Nutter
Keith Connors

Off-Broadway Players

The Off Broadway Players introduces interested students, with or without prior acting experience, to all aspects of theatrical productions, to doing volunteer work and community service. Some of the past performances include A Midsummer Night's Dream, Noises Off, Into the Woods, and Grease.

Officers:
Advisor – Charlotte Mandell
President – Kenny Meehan
Vice-president – Heather Rhodes
Secretary –Georgia Agganis
Treasurer – Shawna O'Brian

Residents Hall Association

Residents Hall Association is the governing and programming board of the resident halls. Representatives from each hall are actively involved in leadership development and programming in/on campus housing.

Officers:
Advisor – Alana Green and Renee Gately
President – Danielle McSheffery
Vice-president –
Secretary –
Treasurer – Sue Tremblay

WJUL

WJUL is the campus radio station, 91.5 FM. which runs 365 days a year providing a wide variety of student and community based programming. No experience necessary, only an interest in participating. Training programs and opportunities are ongoing.

91.5

SGA

The Student Government Association is elected by the students, and works for the students to improve all aspects of life at the University. The membership consists of seven (7) senators elected from each class annually. The Executive Board oversees and coordinates the efforts of Senate through various sub-committees. The SGA works through committees such as the Student Union Board of Directors, Student Services, Academic Affairs, Public Relations, Finance and Governance Committees.

Executive Board:
Advisor – Mary Connelly and Jeffery Gerson
President – Danielle Cochrane
Vice-president – Rob Valella
Secretary – Kristin Higgins
Treasurer – Erin Conlin

OPENING WEEK

Moving-in Day was as exciting for the new Freshmen as it was for those returning to the residence halls. While carrying all of the heavy boxes for the students moving in was not fun, it was great to be back. Many Freshmen found out who they would be living with for the next semester and who their neighbors would be. Families and students formed long lines waiting for the elevators in Fox and Donahue, while Leitch and Bourgeois had long lines of their own as many freshmen tried to figure out where their rooms were. There were many activities that opening week including a video dance jam, coffee house in the Common, and Tommy Vee, an exceptional hypnotist. Opening Week introduced many new students to life on campus while simultaneously uniting friends who have not seen each other since the beginning of summer.

CASINO NIGHT

"Place Your Bets!" Many students and their friends tried their luck at Black Jack, Craps and Roulette at the annual Casino night. The volunteer dealers, cashiers and bankers were all Residence Life staff members. The staff, which uses the event as a fundraiser, gives half of their proceeds to community service projects.

By the end of the night, some students went home with a little more money than they started with, but most went home with a little less. Overall, the students went home with smiles because they had a great time and the event was a success.

Jennifer's Run

The First Annual Jennifer's Run Memorial Run/Walk was held October 14th at the UMASS athletic facility in Lowell. The Jennifer D'Amour Memorial Scholarship Fund is dedicated to the memory of Jennifer D'Amour, Class of '98, who was killed in an auto accident in May of last year. At the time of her death she was in graduate school and was one semester short of receiving her Master's degree in Elementary Education. Throughout her four years at UMass Lowell she was an honor roll student, worked in the Student Activity office and was a member of the Cross-Country and Track and Field teams.

The weather couldn't have been better for this mid-October day. Conditions were dry and cool making the 3.1 mile journey enjoyable for all participants and racers alike. There were 120 pre-registrations in and 95 registrants on race day achieving an overwhelming 215 participants. The money raised at Jennifer's Run from participants and corporate sponsors went directly to the scholarship fund.

FAMILY DAY

October 14, the South Campus quad was buzzing with life as student organizations and outside vendors set up their booths for Family Day. Every year, staff, students, alumni, and faculty bring their families to this special event. The event was sponsored by the Activities Commission, the Residence Hall Association, Student Government Association as well as the office of Student Activities and the office of Residence Life.

Adding to the day was a performance by the Marching Band. In addition, the Leitch Hall Council sold freshly made popcorn and the Vietnamese Student Association served oriental dishes. The Concordia Hall council rented sumo suits for friends to wrestle. A miniature golf course, an inflatable playhouse and pony rides were also available. The duet between Livingston Taylor and UML's very own Ben Ledwell was the highlight of the day.

Each year, many families learn more about the University and what it has to offer through events such as this. Everyone thought this was a great day to share with family and friends.

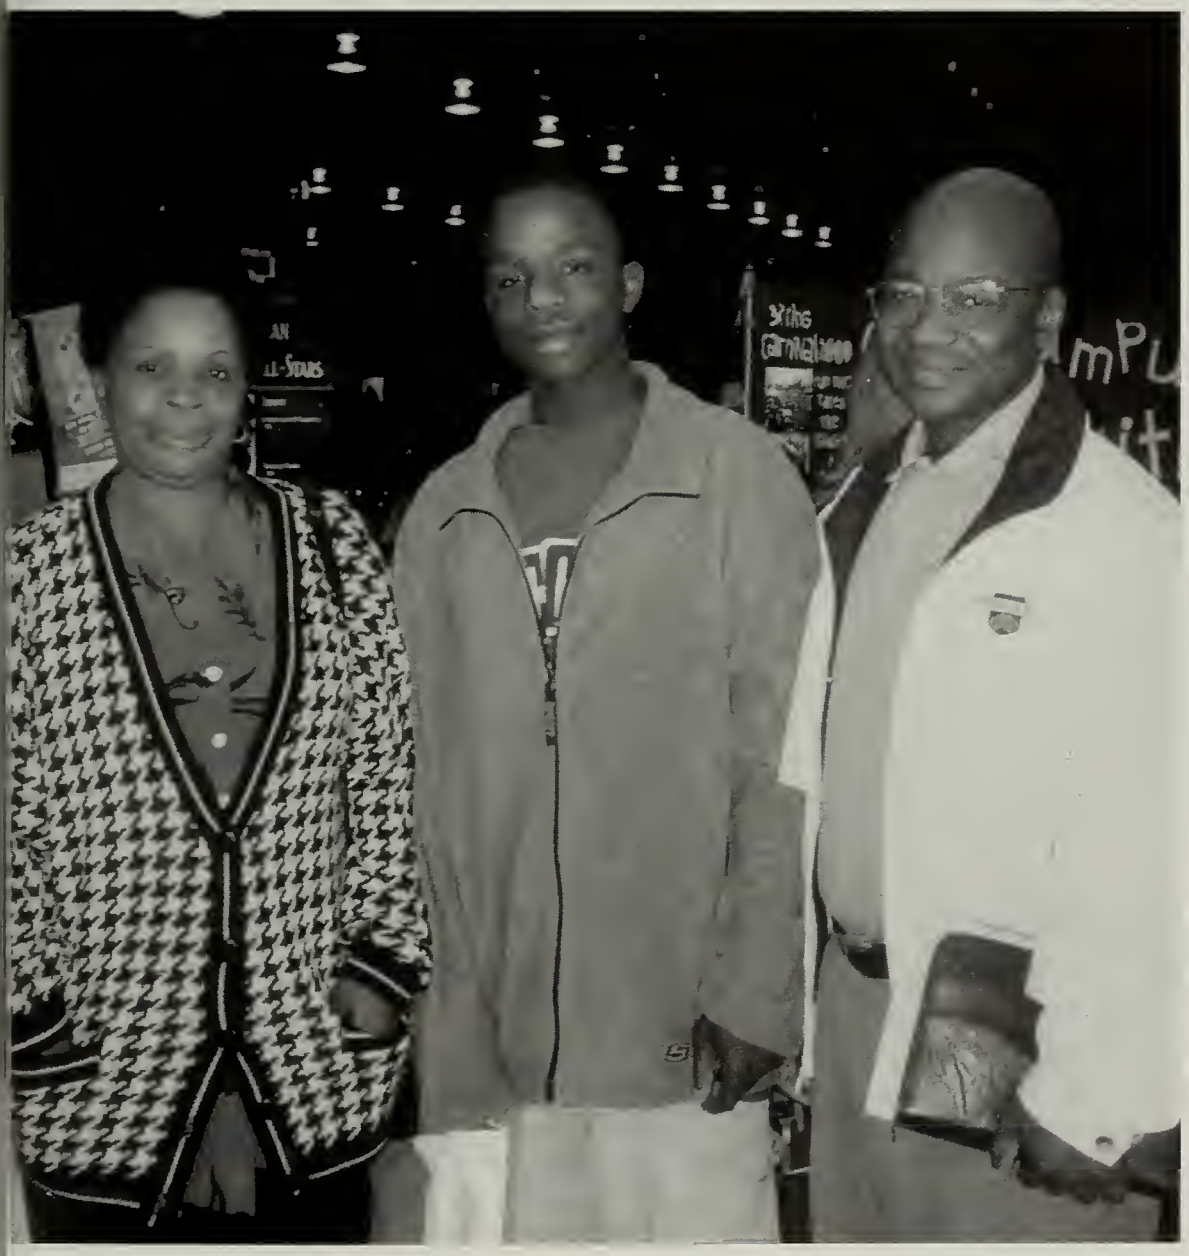
TSONGAS OPEN HOUSE



Open House this year was a great success. Over 1500 prospective students and their families came to the Tsongas Arena to check out what UML had to offer. Students glanced through the booths of the different departments, while parents learned about the different financial aid options available.

Different clubs and organizations at the University such as the radio station-WJUL, the Society of Women Engineers, the International Relations Club among many others, were also present. Prospective students got to meet current students and discuss first hand what college life is like at UMass Lowell. Model dorm rooms, a scale model of the new rec center, and a designated residential floor in Fox Hall were also available for viewing.

The Open House continues to be a major recruiting initiative and introduction to the University.

CAREER FAIR

UML students eagerly made their way to Costello Gym for the semi-annual Career Fair sponsored by Career Services. Many local businesses recruited seniors with different majors seeking full time employment. Juniors and sophomores had a lot of internship and co-op opportunities to choose from.

Many students received free gifts such as t-shirts and water bottles. This was also a chance for students to get a handle on the skills necessary for success in the professional world.

HONORS PROGRAM

The Honors Program held its annual Halloween party on October 31, 2000 at the Girl's Inc. in downtown Lowell. Seven members of the program volunteered their afternoon to help supervise games and activities for sixty young girls. The girls decorated cookies, played in a makeshift obstacle course, and went through a funhouse. The children had fun and the Honors Program members enjoyed seeing all the smiling faces.

The annual College Bowl Tournament, also sponsored by the Honors Program, took place on November 8. Several teams competed and team "Inevitability" won first place. Participants who answered the most questions correctly were selected to form an All-Star team to represent UML at a regional tournment in Providence RI.

SEMIFORMAL

The Residence Hall Association sponsored its annual semi-formal in October of this year. This event on the Spirit of Boston Cruiseline, was a great place for friends to get together. The students took the bus into the city and sailed around Boston Harbor. The DJ was great and students danced the night away. Everyone who attended had fun.

Reunion Golf Tournament

The first Annual Student Services Reunion was held this October. Following close at the heels of Family Day, past and present members of the staff of Residence Life, Orientation, Student Activities as well as members of the SGA, Connector, Activities Commission, RHA, WJUL and Sojourn joined on the South Campus Quad for a cookout and miniature golf tournament. The winners of the tournament took home prizes while everyone had fun meeting and reliving fun of days gone by.

STARS ALUMNI DINNER

Every year the STARS Alumni dinner is held to introduce new students to current student leaders. This years dinner took place on December 4, 2000 with a number of student leaders in attendence. Danielle Cochrane represented SGA; Kelly Andreoni represented WJUL; Pha Chhoeun represented SOJOURN, to name a few.

Hilary Lloyd ('98) and Tim Lloyd ('91) were asked to speak to the students about their successful experiences as student leaders here at the University and how that experience helped them in their current profession.

The STARS Alumni dinner is always a good time because more students end up getting involved on campus as a result of great programs such as this.

This is a weekend you won't want to miss!!

NINE DAYS

UMass Lowell students were treated to a special apperance by Nine Days. The Activities Commission brought the group to the Univeristy as part of "Get a Grip Week". The band played many favorites including "Story of a Girl" and "If I Am". After their spectacular performance, members of Nine Days stuck around to sign autographs and pose for many excited fans. To end a perfect night, a portrait of the AC and Nine Days was taken to remember the night for many years to come.

SGA Head Start Christmas Party

"I love seeing the smiles on their cute little faces!!!"
-Pha

Each year Student Government sponsors the Head Start Christmas party to donate gifts to children during the holiday season. This year, members of SGA along with others helped wrap over five hundred gifts for the kids on December 6th. The next day, hundreds of kids from the CTI Head Start program sang Christmas songs with Ray Brierly and the rest of his "assistants". During one of the songs, Santa Claus (Kevin Buckley, Jr.) walked into the room and every child waved to him in excitement. Santa gave out presents to every child and none went home without a big smile. Thanks to all those who helped to make this holiday season a little brigther for these kids.

STUDENT LEADER CONFERENCE

Forty one students representing approximately ten different campus groups took part in a Leadership Conference on February 23 & 24, sponsored by Student Activities and Residence Life. The basis of the retreat was to present the on-campus resources available to student leaders. Presentations included ways to motivate members of the group, how to manage and delagate responsibility and successful ways to market a program.

Those who attened the conference went away knowing more about themselves and how to become the leader that they want to be; but as important, they went away with new friendships.

Undergraduate Research Symposium

The Fourth Annual Undergraduate Research Symposium was held on April 26, 2001 in Cunnock Auditorium. The symposium gives both undergraduate and graduate students a chance to display the data and information that they have collected throughout the year. The information is then presented in poster board format. More than eighty posters were presented at this years symposium representing research in fields such as health science, math, engineering, sciences, social sciences, history, among others. Also in attendence were students from area high schools who were given a glimpse of college academics.

SPRING CARNIVAL

Thanks to hard work, creative ideas and warm weather, this years Spring Carnival, on South Campus, was exceptionally successful. With many clubs selling anything from hotdogs to pie throwing and AC renting a ton of fun rides, this years student turnout was incredible. Bumper cars, the scrambler, and jousting allowed students to relieve some of their end of the year stress while the more traditional carnival activities like henna, charicature art and fake tattoos were available for everyone.

But what really drew the crowd was the outragious music group "They Might Be Giants", followed by this years Battle of the Bands winner, Center of the Earth. Spring Carnival is always successful because it brings all students together for a day of fun and new memories.

Student Activities Banquet

The 12th Annual Student Activities Banquet was held on May 3rd in Cunnock Hall. Many individuals were nominated but only a handful of students received the various awards. Students, faculty, and other guest enjoyed dinner and the company of friends and professors. The accomplishments of various clubs and organizations were shared through a video slide show compiled by Mary Connelly and the SOJOURN yearbook. The annual banquet is a great way to end the year because it brings together active students to celebrate their accomplishments.

Class of 2001 President

Kevin J. Buckley Jr

I want to thank my parents, family, and friends for their support during my three years on Lowell Campus. I also want to express my gratitude to Dean Ellen Duggan, Mary Connelly and Brenda Evans of the Office of Student Activities, Emily, Ranya, Genevieve, Cat, and Gina for their support and friendship in the past few years.

We are gathered here in this extraordinary area as UMass Lowell's first graduating class of the 21st Century. We are taking the name and reputation of the University into a new Century. We will always be the class of 2001 - the first class of the Millennium! The next stage of our own journey begins today.

Let us show what we can do now that it's our turn. Good Luck!

As I take a step into the world outside, I would like to thank my parents, sister and brother-in-law for standing by me through thick and thin, and giving me the confidence to get this far!

I would also like to express my gratitude to Larry Siegel, Annie Ciaraldi, Mary Connelly, Brenda Evans, Janice Skryness and Alana Greene for putting their trust in me and giving me the opportunity to develop both personally and professionally.

Last but not the least, I want to thank all my friends for the times we have shared together these past years. Memories I will cherish for years to come.

Thank you everyone for being my 'Home away from home!'

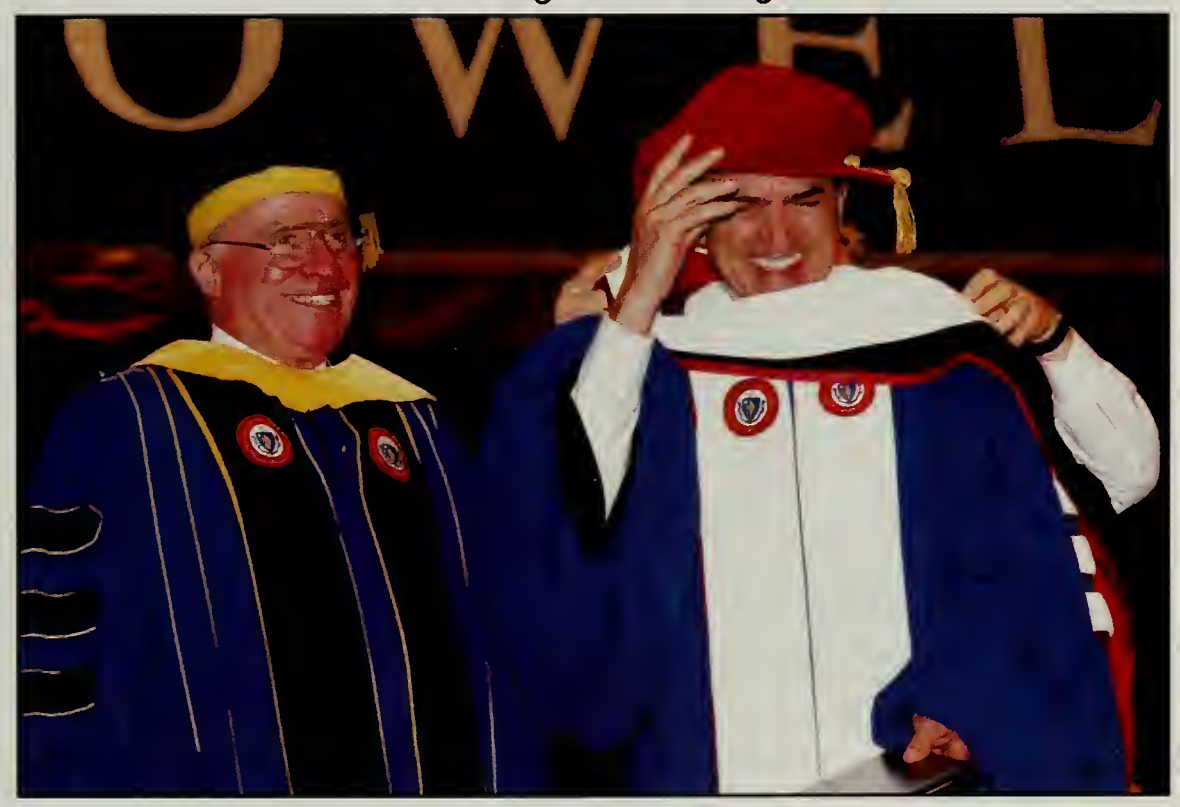
Do's and Don'ts of Commencement

Don't try and get your parent's attention. They can't see you!

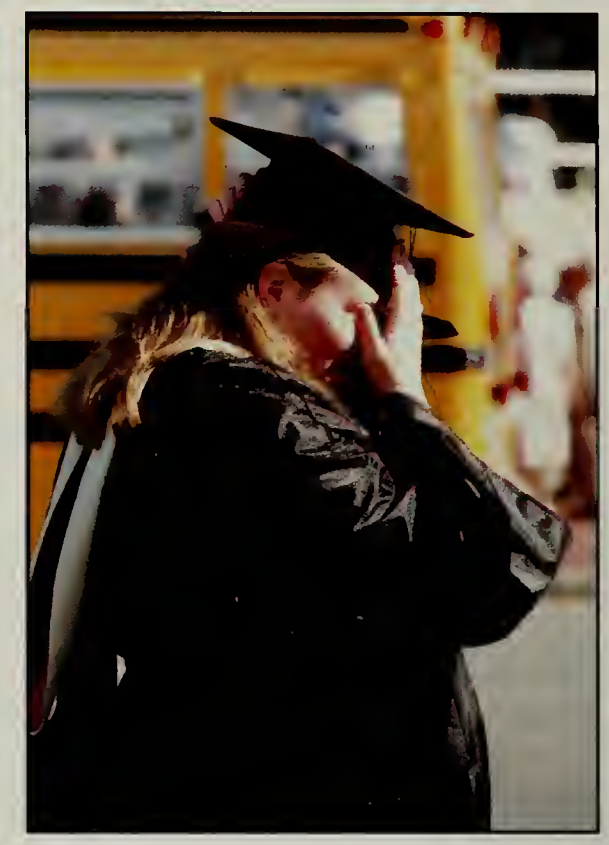
Don't carry your big white bag!

Do eat breakfast. It can be a long morning!



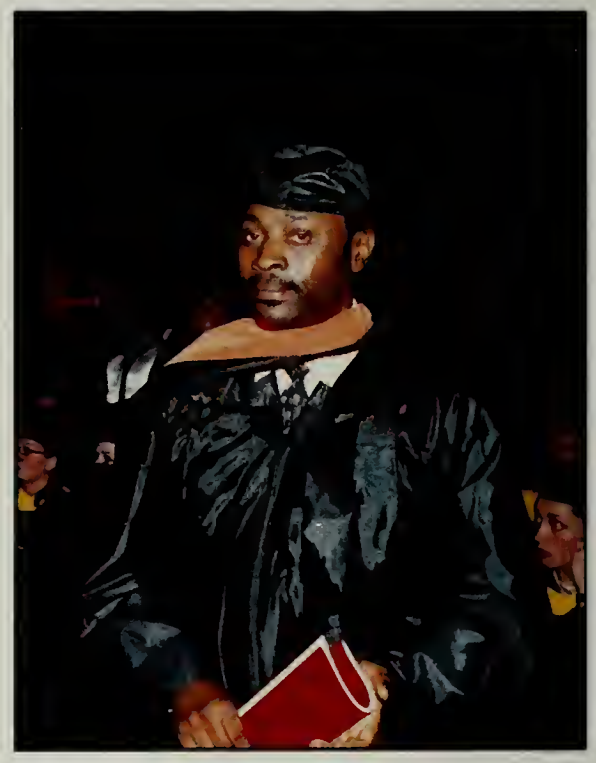
Don't get your hood caught on your hat!

Do show your school spirit!



Do make sure your hat is on snugly!

Do try and remember who actually spoke at your ceremony!



Do ask for help with the hood. It actually hangs in the back!

Do make sure that your name is spelt right!

ACTIVITIES COMMISSION

DONE! With the help of very committed individuals who worked countless hours, I am glad to say that the 2000-2001 yearbook is finally complete! I'd like to thank Silvia, Colleen, Lisa, Barbara, and Kevin for their work on their respective sections. Also a big thanks to Ranya and Emily for their hard work during the summer hours with their senior sections, which by the way, turned out great! I'd especially like to thank Dawn Ayes for sticking it out with me during the long summer meetings. And who could forget our ever vigilant advisors, Hilary Lloyd and Mary Connelly. Without their help and advice, I would still be stuck on what to do for certain pages (i.e. sports). Thank you all and I hope this book means as much to you as it does to me.

Dawn, the next book is yours!

The Election 2000

After five weeks of hand recounts, court appeals, concessions and retractions, Vice President Al Gore's final concession of the presidency to Texas Governor George W. Bush and his vice presidential running mate Dick Cheney brought an end to one of the longest and most eventful elections in American history.

What happened? The Election at a Glance:

November 7 (Election Day): Shortly before 8 p.m. EST, the major television networks estimate Al Gore and vice-presidential running mate Joe Lieberman the winners.

With a too-close-to-call election throughout much of the nation, Florida becomes the key state in deciding the winner, as the next president will need Florida's 25 electoral votes to win.

November 8: At 2:15 a.m., results from Florida begin to suggest George Bush carries the battleground state. Gore concedes the election to Bush, thinking Bush has at least a 50,000 vote lead. Forty-five minutes later, Gore gets word Bush's lead has shrunk to only a few thousand votes, and retracts his concession.

Due to the closeness of the election, the focus turns to questionable ballots and fair voting practices.

In St. Louis, Mo., a controversy arises over a lower court's ruling to keep the polls open past the 7 p.m. deadline.

In Palm Beach County, Fla., an unexpectedly large number of votes for Reform Party candidate Pat Buchanan lead to questions about the legitimacy of the punch-card-style "butterfly ballot."

November 9: Gore's team requests a hand recount of ballots in four Florida counties, Palm Beach, Miami-Dade, Broward and Volusia.

November 16: Bush's lawyers submit written arguments to the U.S. Federal Appeals Court to end recounts.

November 22-December 8: Hand recounts and legal battles continue, making the word "chad" (the small piece of paper punched out of the ballots) a household word.

December 9: The U.S. Supreme Court halts the manual recounts and sets a hearing for two days later.

December 13: In a public concession speech, Gore states he no longer wishes to prolong the election, and yields the presidency, making George W. Bush the nation's 43rd president, and the first chief executive since Benjamin Harrison in 1888 to claim the office with the majority of electoral votes but a minority of the popular vote nationwide.

YOU SAID...

Was Al Gore's appeal for a vote recount in Miami-Dade and Palm Beach counties justified or unjustified?

Elian Gonzalez, a six-year-old Cuban boy found off the coast of Florida, survived yet another ordeal: the brutal custody battle between relatives in Miami and his father in Cuba. The long struggle culminated in a late-night raid on a Miami home where armed U.S. agents seized Elian by force, putting him in the custody of his father who returned with Elian to Cuba.

In a stunning surprise move, Israeli Prime Minister Ehud Barak announced his resignation. Barak's popularity had dropped during the ongoing conflict between Israelis and Palestinians. Barak stood for re-election, hoping for a vote of confidence from the Israeli People, but lost to Likud party leader Ariel Sharon.

Many thought peace between North Korea and South Korea would never happen, but the past year saw warming relations between the two countries, which are still technically at war. Images of North Korean leader Kim Jong Il entertaining South Korea's Kim Dae-jung at a June peace summit in Pyong-yang were considered some of the most surprising news pictures of the year.

Tragedy struck when Air France Flight 4590, one of only 13 Concorde jetliners in use, caught fire upon takeoff and crashed into a small hotel in the French town of Gonesse. The 109 people aboard were killed, as well as four people on the ground.

Hillary Rodham Clinton became the first active first lady of the United States to win an elective office when she defeated U.S. Republican representative Rick Lazio for one of New York's U.S. Senate seats.

Elections in Yugoslavia turned angry when Prime Minister Slobodan Milosevic lost to the people's choice Vojislav Kostunica 35 percent to 55 percent. The election's close margin of error would have warranted a recount, but Milosevic refused to hold another election, declaring himself the winner. The outraged public rallied violently in the streets of Belgrade, and the riots combined with pressure from the U.N. and Russia finally forced Milosevic to concede the election to Kostunica.

A nation mourned the lives lost on the Russian nuclear submarine Kursk, which sank to the bottom of the Barents Sea after being shattered by a huge explosion. Despite the prolonged rescue efforts of Russian and Norwegian divers, all 118 men aboard the Kursk died.

A Christmas Day blaze in Central China tore through a shopping and commercial center, killing 309 people. The fire trapped people celebrating at a Christmas dance party as well as construction workers inside the four-story supermarket, shops and disco building in the Henan province of Luoyang.

Violence and tension in the Middle East escalated once again when the USS Cole United States Navy destroyer was attacked while moored in Yemen for routine refueling. Suicidal terrorists on a small boat crept up and bombed the Cole, killing 17 United States sailors and Marines.

Bitter cold and freezing water did not deter an estimated two and a half million people who bathed in India's Ganges River on the first day of a Hindu religious festival. The Maha Kumbh Mela, or Grand Pitcher Festival, takes place every 12 years and sees millions of devotees bathe in the Ganges to purify their sins.

James Perkins, Jr., a former computer consultant, was chosen as the first-ever black mayor of Selma, Ala., with 57 percent of the vote in a runoff election. He defeated long-time Selma Mayor Joseph T. Smitherman, who was going for his 10th re-election.

A 7.6-magnitude earthquake devastated the suburban neighborhood of Las Colinas in El Salvador. More than 600 were reported dead. In Washington state, Salvadoran Americans numbering about 135,000 rushed to organize relief efforts while individuals coped with losing relatives and friends in the Central American tragedy.

As the price of crude oil reached a 10-year high of $34 per barrel, angry truckers and farmers throughout Europe blockaded oil depots and put a chokehold on much of the nation's fuel supply. The high petrol prices led to an unprecedented show of public dissent in European countries, particularly Britain.

People and Entertainment

After 15 years of co-hosting with Regis Philbin on "Live with Regis and Kathie Lee," Kathie Lee Gifford bid farewell to the show. The 46-year-old entertainer, wife of former football star and Monday night sports announcer Frank Gifford, cited concerns about spending more time with her two young children, son Cody and daughter Cassidy, as reasons for leaving the show. ABC soap opera actress Kelly Ripa was selected as Gifford's replacement.

The Food Network brought popular Japanese cooking show The Iron Chef to the United States, where it quickly became a cult hit. The theatrical Japanese program featured an unusual combination of WWF Smackdown-type competition and gourmet cooking, pitting the world's best chefs against each other in a culinary battle using eclectic ingredients such as pork belly or giant eel.

Web superstar Napster, founded and created by 19-year-old Shawn Fanning, was pulled into court as the Recording Industry of America sued to stop the extremely successful Internet music file sharing company in aiding the distribution of copyrighted songs. The legal pressure led to a federal court ruling for Napster to stop its users from trading copyrighted material and also to an alliance with German media giant Bertelsmann.

George, the political monthly magazine founded by the late John F. Kennedy Jr., folded in March due to monetary problems. The final issue included a collection of interviews conducted by Kennedy while he was editor.

Two years after announcing he had Parkinson's disease, actor Michael J. Fox made his final appearance on the ABC sitcom "Spin City." Despite his degenerative disease, Fox saw the series through its 100th episode. Movie actor Charlie Sheen took over for him, not as Fox's "Spin" character, but as a new deputy mayor on the show.

Reality-based television shows became a pop-culture phenomenon with the summer debut of CBS's "Survivor" and "Big Brother." Richard Hatch was the first contestant to survive "Survivor," winning the $1 million grand prize. The shows feature screened contestants placed in real-life situations with no scripts or predetermined outcomes. MTV's "The Real World" was the predecessor to the popular "real" shows, followed by "Who Wants to be a Millionaire," "Greed" and "Making the Band."

New bride Jennifer Aniston may have taken his eligible bachelor status, but People magazine had no problem crowning actor Brad Pitt the Sexiest Man Alive in 2000. Also named Sexiest Man Alive in 1995, Pitt is the first two-time title-holder since the magazine began its "Sexiest" tradition in 1985.

After being diagnosed with testicular cancer, MTV comedian Tom Green of the "The Tom Green Show" aired a TV special documenting his battle with cancer as well as the comedian's lymph node removal surgery. Green hoped televising his experience would help others gain awareness about cancer.

Despite pleas from the band for fans to move back because people were being pressed up against the stage, eight Pearl Jam fans suffocated in a mosh pit at Denmark's Roskilde Festival. A ninth victim died five days later in a hospital. Twenty-five were injured at the four-day festival, where approximately 50,000 people turned out to see 200 bands play.

The Beatles' 1966 record "Revolver" has been named the greatest rock album ever in a poll conducted by the cable music channel VH1. The Beatles capped a list of the 100 best rock albums taken from a VH1 poll of 500 rock journalists and musicians, including Britney Spears, Jackson Browne, Elvis Costello, Roberta Flack and Art Garfunkel. The Fab Four are still topping the charts with "1," a collection of all the Beatles' number one hits.

"The West Wing" set a record for the most Emmys earned by a show in its first season. The NBC political drama won nine Emmys, including outstanding drama, at the 52nd Annual Prime Time Emmy Awards. The show surpassed the record previously held by "ER" and "Hill Street Blues." The NBC comedy "Will & Grace" also turned 11 of its nominations into awards, including outstanding comedy.

Controversial rapper Eminem, a.k.a. Marshall Mathers, got top honors at the ninth annual MTV Video Music Awards, winning the coveted Video of the Year award along with best male video for his signature song "The Real Slim Shady." Eminem's "The Marshall Mathers LP" sold 1.76 million copies during its first week.

Harry Potter mania infected readers around the world. Although Book One of the series, "Harry Potter and the Sorcerer's Stone," was first published in 1997, Y2K saw a mad surge in popularity for the boy wizard. The first four of the seven-book series, released by the end of 2000, sold 60 million copies in 200 countries. The voluminous 734-page "Harry Potter and the Goblet of Fire" (book four) packed book houses with a record first printing of 3.8 million copies.

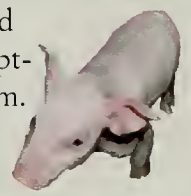
The first five cloned piglets were presented to the world in April. The pigs were cloned from fetal-pig skin cells and scientists believe that due to the similarities between porcine (pig) and human organs, the techniques used to clone this litter may eventually create a supply of genetically modified pig livers and other organs that would be acceptable to the human immune system.



Researchers from Carnegie Mellon unveiled Nomad, the first robotic planetary rover with onboard intelligence. Previous planetary explorers, such as the Mars Pathfinder, needed human controllers to tell them what to do, but Nomad performs tasks such as snapping pictures, collecting samples and sending data back to earth by itself. Using a laser range finder and spectrometer, the robot analyzes every single rock in its path. Scientists hope to employ future generations of the rover to explore other planets.

It was a bittersweet victory for scientists when they successfully cloned a dead Asian gaur, an extinct species, and brought it into the world from the belly of a farm cow. The baby bull, called Noah, was born at Trans-Ova Genetics in Sioux City, Iowa, but died shortly after birth. Although Noah died, the project gives hope for ways to save endangered species and resurrect those already extinct.

After years of dreaming, planning and arguing over who should get the credit, the International Human Genome Project and Celera Genomics put their differences aside and officially announced they have (both) deciphered the 3.1 billion biochemical "letters" of human DNA. The amazing breakthrough will allow scientists vast insight into human health and disease at the molecular level, knowledge that will lead to a revolution in diagnosing and treating everything from Alzheimer's to cancer. The discovery is seen as one of history's great scientific milestones, the biological equivalent of landing on the moon.

Astronaut William Shepherd and cosmonauts Sergei Krikalyov and Yuri Gidzenko made up the first team to inhabit the International Space Station, taking historic steps toward what NASA hopes will become a permanent living and working space. Each team will work and live for four months aboard the Russian module Zvezda, conducting biological and technical experiments until another crew replaces them.

Israel-based Given Imaging, Ltd. introduced a 1.18-inch-long pill camera that, when swallowed, can travel through a human digestive tract, transmitting two still images per second to a Walkman-like receiver attached to the person's belt. Within 24 to 48 hours, doctors can download the data and assemble a more accurate and complete video of the intestines than can be taken through the more traditional endoscopy.

Y2K saw great improvements in the increasingly popular digital camera. Manufacturers shipped 5.1 million digital cameras throughout the U.S., and the improved photo quality, reduced cost, convenience of not buying film, and ability to review and erase unwanted shots have made the digital camera more popular than ever. TIME Magazine named the Nikon Coolpix 990 digital camera the Machine of the Year.

Spectators beheld a dazzling opening ceremony, including the lighting of the torch by Australian runner (and native Aborigine) Cathy Freeman, who was later overcome with emotion when she won the gold for the women's 400-meter race.

Although the games received the lowest television ratings since 1968, many athletes gave inspirational performances.

United States sprinter Marion Jones fell short of her goal to win five gold medals, but still got the gold in the 100 and 200 meter sprints, and the 4x400 meter relay, as well as the bronze in the long jump and 4x100 meter relay, winning the medals in spite of the distraction of husband and shot put world champion C.J. Hunter's positive drug test.
